

The Dance of Life

A weekend of Dances of Universal Peace and Spiritual Teachings with
Pir Shabda Kahn

May 1—3, 2009
San Diego, CA

“The work that a Sufi considers his or her sacred work has nothing to do with any particular creed nor with any particular religion; it is only this simple thing, to be in rhythm with life’s conditions and to be in tune with the infinite.”

~ Sufi Master

Hazrat Inayat Khan

Join master musician and renowned Sufi teacher Pir Shabda Kahn for a powerful journey into the Way of the Heart. This beautiful workshop will offer the opportunity to discover or deepen your experiences of the profound teachings and practices of Sufism, and experience the Sufi Message of Love, Harmony and Beauty.

Join us as we offer an experiential exploration of our attunement to our life through the Dances of Universal Peace, Sufi practices, teachings, stories, the Walking Mediations of Murshid Samuel Lewis, and Zikr. All welcome!!

Shabda Kahn, a direct disciple of the American Sufi Master, Murshid Samuel Lewis, has been practicing Sufism since 1969. He is the Pir (Spiritual Director) of the Sufi Ruhaniat International, the sufi lineage tracing from Hazrat Inayat Khan and Murshid Samuel Lewis. In 1972 Shabda met his second great teacher, the late Master Singer, Pandit Pran Nath, and began the daily practice of North Indian classical music in the Kirana style. He now teaches vocal music and performs Raga singing and has appeared in numerous concerts around the world. Shabda is one of a handful of Americans who have dedicated themselves to carrying on the legacy of the treasure of North Indian classical vocal music. He is also a disciple of the illustrious Tibetan Buddhist Master, the 12th Tai Situpa Rinpoche.

Shabda travels throughout the world spreading the Sufi Message of Love, Harmony and Beauty. Shabda brings warmth, humor and clarity in his efforts to help seekers on their Path to Awakening.

Shabda will be accompanied by the brilliant drummer Gayan Gregory Long.
